BREMER'S FINAL APPEAL FOR SON

February 3, 1934

To the Presses Everywhere
and Edward G. Bremer

At last, state and federal authorities have consented to allow me to make my own way for a limited time to seek the return of my boy. Report you that I am only interested in the safe return of Edward and as the following negotiations are carried out, I will have no interest in any activity other my son is returned.

My telephone in home and office have been watched; therefore consent to this may be not desirable. I merely mention this to indicate to you now that I am sincere in my desire and efforts to communicate with you from any outside interference.

I realize that I cannot publish my choice in making this contact and the only to work out our negotiations. Edward will have to absent himself regardless of where he may be located in the United States. Please print with this party a letter in his own handwriting referring to communication in the person so that I will know he has read the instructions. Please also include letter your instructions to the party that should nothing but to have to give sufficient time for the instructions to be carried out.

If I have not heard from Edward within three days and three nights, I shall understand that you do not wish to deal with me and I will feel I am released from any obligations as contained in this note.

I give you my word of honor that this contact is made no one except the parties named by you shall have any knowledge of its existence.

Contact

Adolf Bremer issued an ultimatum to the kidnapers of his son, Edward G. Bremer, last night, giving them three more days in which to contact with him for the release of the wealthy St. Paul banker and hinting that, unless contact is made in that time, he will throw the weight of his position into a man-hunt for them.

Desperate and near collapse after 18 days of vain waiting for word from his son or the abductors, the wealthy St. Paul banker and brewer, who is a close personal friend of President Roosevelt, cried unashamedly as he handed out type-written copies of his appeal and requested newspaper men to "give it as much prominence as you can."

Limited Time Allowed
City police and federal authorities have given him "a limited time" to attempt to negotiate the release of his son in his own way, Mr. Bremer said.

He warned the kidnapers that his telephones are being watched, and suggested that they have his son write to some friend elsewhere in the United States to make contact. He promised complete secrecy in the dealings, "on my word of honor," and declared, should this suggestion be followed, he "will have no interest in any activity after my son is returned." This was interpreted to mean he would hands off any search for kidnapers if his son were found once. But he did not say this.

MY PEOPLE IN MY DISTRICT ARE WONDERFUL THOUGH POOR AND FEW IN NUMBER. Please keep this in mind. However, TRUTH IS TRUTH.

There is a great lack of REAL FAITH amongst so many of my people. Let me give you a PROOF for my assertion. Judge for yourself and SEE FOR YOURSELF what my REAL DIFFICULTIES are.

A good man but oh, so weak in FAITH, spoke to me the other day. Imagine his religious mentality!

He actually offered me $35.00 if I would prove to him that I MYSELF BELIEVED what I preached and practised. He could not believe in God, heaven and hell. HE GOES TO CHURCH OCCASIONALLY. He sends his children to catechism BUT IMAGINE THE EFFECT WHEN THEY COME HOME and hear their parent talk thus ! HE IS ONLY ONE OF MANY.

They like me as a FRIEND and GOOD FELLOW but don't believe what I say AS A PRIEST. Church going, regular reception of the Sacraments, regular Sunday attendance at Mass Sunday for Sunday is to them not TO BE TAKEN TOO SERIOUSLY. Catholic literature is uninteresting and a waste of money. At Easter time the church is filled but at other times it is not necessary.

Whenever I preach I am usually misunderstood and if I preach PLAIN CATHOLIC DOCTRINE I am telling them something NEW or TOO SIMPLE for people of OUR AGE.

My children attend ELEVEN PUBLIC SCHOOLS. The teachers are either Protestants or UNBELIEVERS or weak Catholics whose Catholic training is very limited.

Read this and SEE FOR YOURSELF HOW MUCH I NEED YOUR ASSISTANCE. How can I expect to get MASS REQUESTS from people who have such a low OPINION of the MOST SUBLIME MODE OF HONORING GOD. The vast MAJORITY NEVER JET in the past two years since I came here, had a SINGLE MASS REQUESTED from me. CHARITY may help to remedy these conditions and it will take MANY YEARS and MUCH PATIENCE before I can expect any real change of mind and heart in these poor people GOOD AS THEY ARE. Please take this into consideration. Kindly do whatever you can.

Gratefully yours in advance,
Father Fox.

Birch Creek, Michigan.
P.O.- R # 1, Menominee, Michigan.

Feb. 4/34.

Dear Friends:

~~As yet I am not known to you.~~ Permit me to identify myself. Birch Creek is not on the map. It is about five miles north of Menominee, Michigan.

Before June 1931 it was not mentioned in the Cath. Directory. It had and still has a FIFTY year old frame church, poorly constructed in the simple fashion of those days, by a few pioneers and is serving it's purpose quite well. The Mt. Rev. Bishop sent me here two years ago to pasteurize this district. Here is what I found and now have.

I need not tell you about the present hard times. Hard everywhere ZING this district. I had no rectory and the children of this district to this day attend ELEVEN public schools. This will give you an idea of the size of this district. Imagine my task teaching catechism after school hours in all kinds of weather?

I had $38.00 to begin with. The poor people right now get $1.00 for 100 lbs of milk which they must haul to the cheese factory (their only outlet for sale of same) in all kinds of weather. Imagine my task trying to collect funds for BUILDING purposes, necessary re-

It is useless to mope over my difficulties. Let me explain to you the aim and purpose of this letter. I DESIRE your CO-OPERATION. You alone know HOW you can assist me. I can only SUGGEST various ways to

In a district like this MASS REQUESTS are scarce AT ALL TIMES. In these hard times it is still worse. I WOULD CERTAINLY BE PLEASED TO RECEIVE WHATEVER NUMBER OF REQUESTS YOU CAN AFFORD TO SEND TO ME. I can assure you that they will receive my prompt attention.

Things useful for church and sanctuary are most welcome as also books, magazines and religious articles. Should you know of anyone able to send useful articles of CLOTHING, please tell them to forward whatever they can spare. Helping poor people that way goes FAR towards reaching their hearts and making church going a pleasure to them. YOU WOULD BE SURPRISED TO SEE THE NUMBER OF HABITUAL MASS * MISSERS in this district. Inclosed please find a handy shipping label and address sticker. Wishing you and yours God's choicest blessings for the NEW YEAR and hoping to hear from you soon I sincerely am gratefully yours in advance,

Mr. Adolph Bremer,
St. Paul, Minnesota.

My dear Mr. Bremer:-

Am much interested in your sad family affairs. Sure is terrible and you deserve much sympathy.

Society sure is terribly upset and the whole world is topsy turvy. When someone ask Pope Pius XI what remedy he could think of to change these terrible social upheavals he answered by saying: - You must pray and pray and continue praying unceasingly.

May I suggest that you do pray. Only help from above can bring relief. Men's hearts must be changed.

REV. CHARLES FOX

Whether you consider my inclosed letter or not I will try to assist you with prayer.

I confess that I am somewhat selfish but not for myself. It's my work that I am interested in.

May I suggest that you make a promise ~~to~~ assist God's work and thereby move him to assist you likewise in bringing about a happy solution of your terrible difficulties.
Again, permit me ~~to~~ assist you with my prayers. Hoping that you will not suffer too seriously from this terrible shock I remain

sincerely yours,

The farm strike is on here now and no selling in this section at all so Pete wrote Jack, he got to S.P. all right & Jack is not going to stay there but is going to meet me in Madison Wis^c. and work for me on that job. I am going to raise about $40.00 here from Pete I'll send you half of it so you can settle up some of the things and then meet me in Wis^c or I am going to Minneapolis Wednesday to get this money which is on a grain storage lot there also to pick up an old Ford I can get one there for $16.00 good enough to get me back. Things are plenty bad here now. plenty of trouble among the farmers. I did not like the way Wentz (George) did he does not want to sell unless he gets all just like the rest & he wanted a car. You know how it was. Well I'm going on that big cattle truck from Barrett tomorrow he is hauling a load of tile (clay) to the city from the Benson tile Co. Plant. I have had a tough time and got rotten treatment here when I come back, plain Hell, and I don't blame the wife for not staying here even one time raised Hell with me. Well Sid I'm going to do all I can and send you what I can raise but we must get that job started in Wis^c. I'll write you as soon as I get there & let you know where to come as it is a new theatre in a small town near Madison & I don't know yet where we will stay. Don't bother about the Soitase Co. Sid we'll have to sit it all ride for a few months and get that other work done. I don't want to handle any thing else till

Mr. C. H. Venable,
Chief of Bureau of Investigation
U. S. Department of Justice
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Sir:

(In explanation of the enclosed letter)

Roy O. White (author of letter) came to Springfield, Mo. in the winter of late 32 or early 33. I became acquainted with him and borrowed money which we used to establish the above business. (the business is now defunct)

Upon Whites insistence that his wife owned a large share of her brothers farm, near Parret, Minnesota. I borrowed more money and took he and his family to Parret, for the purpose of converting Mrs. Whites share of the farm into cash, to finance the business.

After remaining a few days with the relatives, White suggested that he and I return to Kansas City, and sell some hand painted menu boards, while his wife was selling her property.

In Kansas City, I left White and returned to Springfield, to look after the business which was in bad shape and, within a few days, on May 19th. I received the enclosed letter from White. Thus ended my connection with White.

In case White proves to be your man, I will furnish as much information as possible. White has two brother in-laws residing on farms about 9 miles from Parret, Minnesota. One Pete Kohn and Andrew Kohn. White also has a very good friend at Baron, Wisconsin. by the name of Ray Higenmeister.

White while in Springfield, preached several sermons and, seemed to be quite an evangelist around Parret, which may account for the kidnap message being written on the Union City Mission, letter head.

White is about 40 yrs. of age, is about 5ft. 7" tall weight about 135 lbs. is rather wide between the eyes and, has a tremendous crop of brown hair, will probably be dressed in high top boots and olive drab riding pants..

Wishing You luck

No more assurance though that he's alive till we are back alive. Thieves are not so foxy as bankers but they're usually more honorable.

This is just a notice that you get one more note that's all.

Get the dough ready stay ready at all time and go through

Keep the money somewhere besides the bank so you wont be meeting to throw a tight net about the lake. Each bay and woodland stretch is now covered by the citizens' protection vigilante committee against hideouts and kidnappers' strongholds.

Sheriff John Wall of Hennepin County joined the vigilantes in their fight to keep the Minnetonka district "clean" and pledged his support and leadership to any policing that is necessary.

"My office record shows that no complaints have come from the Minnetonka district for several months," Sheriff Wall said. "Never-the-less, we all realize that the quiet woodland surrounding the lake affords hideaways for kidnappers and bandits. I heartily pledge my support to the vigilante movement and offer all the services of my office to the men who have set out to keep Minnetonka clean."

The campaign was put under way when reports were received by the police departments of the lakeside townships that gangsters were looking with favor upon the quiet, peaceful Minnetonka district as a haven.
Determined that no unlawful citizens should make their homes around the lake, police chiefs and mayors of the towns set out to organize a vigilante committee.

At the final organization meeting at which the new groups added their support to the others and Sheriff John Wall pledged his leadership, the speakers were A. A.

Stout of Excelsior, J. L. Middleton

A divorced wife took the stand in defense of her former husband in the arson trial before District Judge W. W. Bardwell and displayed nearly $1,000 worth of diamonds to the jury.

Mrs. Helen Coes appeared at the trial of Fred Coes, charged with setting fire to a store and residence at 4401 Twenty-eighth avenue S., last October. She is also under indictment as is Albin Johnson, a roomer at the Coes residence. All three lived at the address.

In support of her contention that there was property in the building in excess of the amount of inurance on it, Mrs. Coes displayed diamonds she claimed were in apartment at the time of the fire.

She denied any knowledge as to who might have set fire to the building.

conversation he has with the man that he was talking with in my office of January 26, are directly implicated in the abduction of Mrs. St. Germain. There were four men present but only two did the talking. I am sure that of these two are strangers to him. The local news comes to him from whom they can get no news of the only other source I heard mention was his brother. In his conversation he spoke of his brother in Chicago. They talked of division of the same outfit to Chicago.

Dear Judge

St Paul Sep. 24 1932.

If you care regards for your self or your family, you will go easy and not convict them Minneapolis boys that handled that money from Mose Barnett and Bates. We will take good care of you and your family if them boys dont get free. And we are going to take good care of Sheeney Wolke for the squawking he done, dont worry about that he is going to git the 1 way ride pretty soon so he will never blab again any more.

Your turn is next if you dont turn them boys loose we will turn on the heat for you and your hell damn family and we dont mean maybe. If you dont want a machine gun pitcher tattoo on your hide just remember our warning and let them boys loose in a hurry because we aint going to wait long to do our stuff judge.

Lemeyer the Minneapolis police chief can tell you them boys is all right and just gamblers and bootleggers that is good friends of his and wouldent mess up in any kidnap job while they is good easy money around hear without going out of town and taking chances on the big house.

Now remember we been killing if you dont leave them go because enough of us is out to raise plenty hell if you dont.

WILSON BARRETTE.
Miami, Fla., March 25.—(AP)—Winona Barrette and Delores Delaney at St. Paul, the girls Alvin Karpis left behind, unexpectedly, were rushed into federal court Monday under heavy guard and at a secret hearing before Judge Malvina L. Ritter were sentenced to five years each in prison on charges of harboring Karpis. The two girls were hustled away from the federal building to an unannounced destination.

DELANEY GIRL'S HOME IN ST. PAUL

Delores Delaney, sentenced to a five-year term of Miami, Fla., is the common-law wife of Alvin Karpis, and Winona Barrette is the "girl friend" of Harry Campbell. Karpis and Campbell shot their way out of a federal free at Atlantic City, N. J., several months ago and left the women behind. Miss Delaney of St. Paul is a sister of Jean Delaney, alias Jean Crompton, serving a term in a federal prison for harboring members of the Dillinger gang. She was the sweetheart of Tommy Carroll, who was shot to death in Iowa. Karpis and Campbell are under indictment as alleged kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker.

Mr. Adolph Bremer
St Paul, Minn.

Dear Sir;

Isn't it true that there are certain experiences in life that can not be put into words? One of them is the loss of a dear one.

Let the greatest Poet, the greatest Painter, and the greatest Musician combine and blend their efforts in an attempt to depict the heart-pain of bereavement, and they are doomed to failure. We are inarticulate in the presence of Death, when the departed one belongs to us. We can not express our sorrow, nor can any one express it for us.

Can any one imagine the torture of doubt and the agony of anxiety of the members of your family.

Because I am a Christian I join with you and pray to God for the safe return of your son.

I am of the opinion that a prolonged delay in the release of your son will be unfortunate.

It seems the kidnappers are seeking a guarantee for a safe get-away with the money. They want 100% favorable conditions.

To the present time I believe, the proper method of action to secure positive results have not been offered them.

Why not give them what they want?

Permit me to say that I am an inventive mind; for the last 10 days I have been constantly thinking of a 100% fool proof plan which will bring speedy and satisfactory results.

I have it now perfect and I would like to offer it to you should you deem it necessary or convenient.

Although I am fully aware of the danger involved, I rather welcome an opportunity, I want to offer myself unconditionally to the carrying out of this plan.

No reward or renumeration is desired. Nor fame or publicity is wanted. I want to put at your disposal what I honestly believe to be a good idea that may greatly help you.

Hoping that you may believe me capable and sincere,

Yours Very Truly,

Dear Mr Bremer;

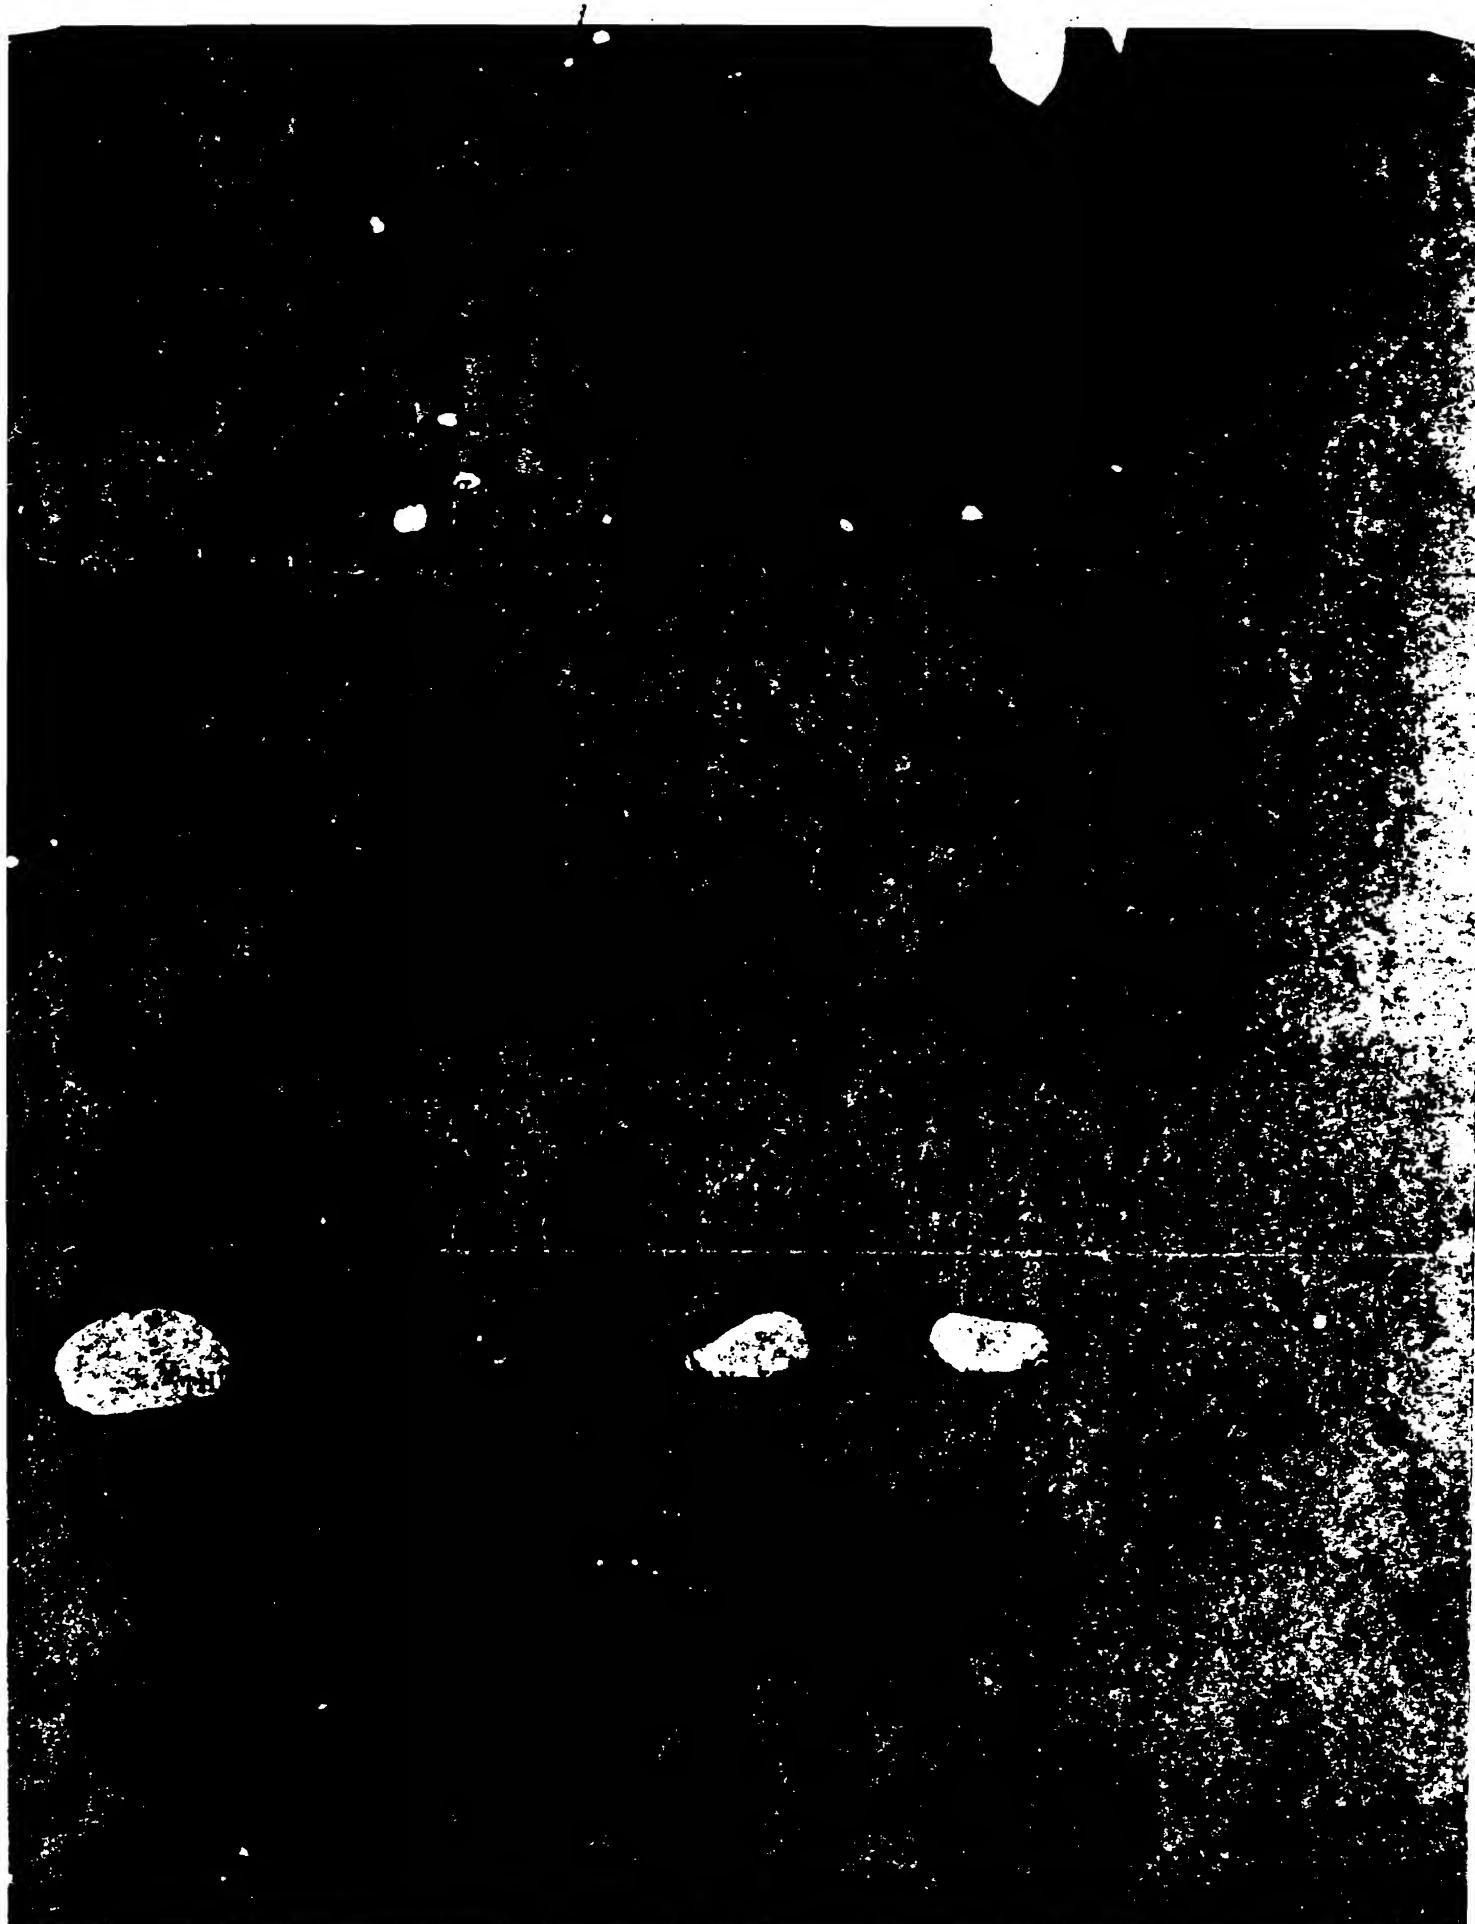

Just a word to say that your sympathizing friends here in the South are hoping and praying that your Son will soon be returned to you and family in good health and strength; I keep up with the news paper accounts, and hope with every copy that it will say he has been returned to you his Mother and wife; wish I had words that would bring a ray of comfort to you and yours;

We as parents know the anxiety that this brings to one heart; We have a cripple boy that had Infantile Paralysis when he was eight years old and we are anxious for him, for if he makes a misstep he can't regain his footing and falls, that make anxious when he goes to school, but we know that yours is a far more worry than that for we have him with us; When your boy is returned let me hear from you; I want to rejoice with you and will even the distance is so far from us;

With every good wish for the safe return of the son, I am sincerely your sympathizing friend; about the lake. Each bay and woodland stretch is now covered by the citizens' protection vigilante committees against hideouts and kidnapers' strongholds.

Sheriff John Wall of Hennepin County joined the vigilantes in their efforts to keep the Minnetonka kidnapers from picking up any girls and leaving them to die.

"My office received many complaints from people in the Minnetonka area during the last two months," Sheriff Wall said. "The least we can do is to make this quiet woodland park safe again and afford hideaway places for bandits to do their work."

Support to the vigilante committee and offer all help possible to the police force to the best of their ability to keep Minnetonka safe.

The campaign was started when reporters from the local police departments and the townships throughout the state, along with friendly neighbors, gathered at the First Methodist Church in Minneapolis. Determined citizens shouldered their guns around the church and the mayors of the surrounding towns and the police chief, which included their superintendents, Sheriff James J. L. Gerhard, Fred C. Brazenas, Stout and Deppen, and Captain W. E. Park.

Albion Coss, 51, of St. Paul, was found guilty of kidnapping his son, when Coss was found guilty of setting fire to a store owned by his son. Twenty-eight years old, October. She is also accused of attempting to kidnap her son's roomer at the same time. The three lived at the same address.

In support of her contention that there was property in the house, in excess of the amount of insurance on it, Mrs. Coss displayed diamonds she claimed were in an apartment at the same address.

She denied any knowledge of the man who might have been in the house, and said that she had no idea who he was.

ENGINEERS PUT THE TIDES

to work February 1 when they began to move the 1,200,000-pound draw of the St. Croix River bridge south of Rosedale, 400 feet from its original location. In the high tide, scows were placed under the heavy steel structure, and as the ocean tide came in the river, the draw was clear of its supports so that it could be floated down to its new location and lowered into place in the ebbing tide.

My Dear Pal

This week has been hell on earth. The boys told me I'd have been home long ago if the money had been paid. I know you are willing to pay in order to have me back but the difficulty is that the arrangements have not been satisfactory. You must promise that even, etc., but you step out of the picture and deliver the money as instructed so that no harm come to the boys and that no harm will come to me. Tell those government men and your other relatives to quit right now and let you work alone. They must understand that you can only pay off if they do so for them to keep on working will ruin all chance to have me back. Explain it to them & don't let them tell you out of it. If they were in my place they would say the same thing I am saying. Why should they persist in staying on the case when it means my life & not theirs. You must not only ask them to stay off but must also see that they do. Your word has always been good with them & for the sake of the cause it has to be.

1-7-516

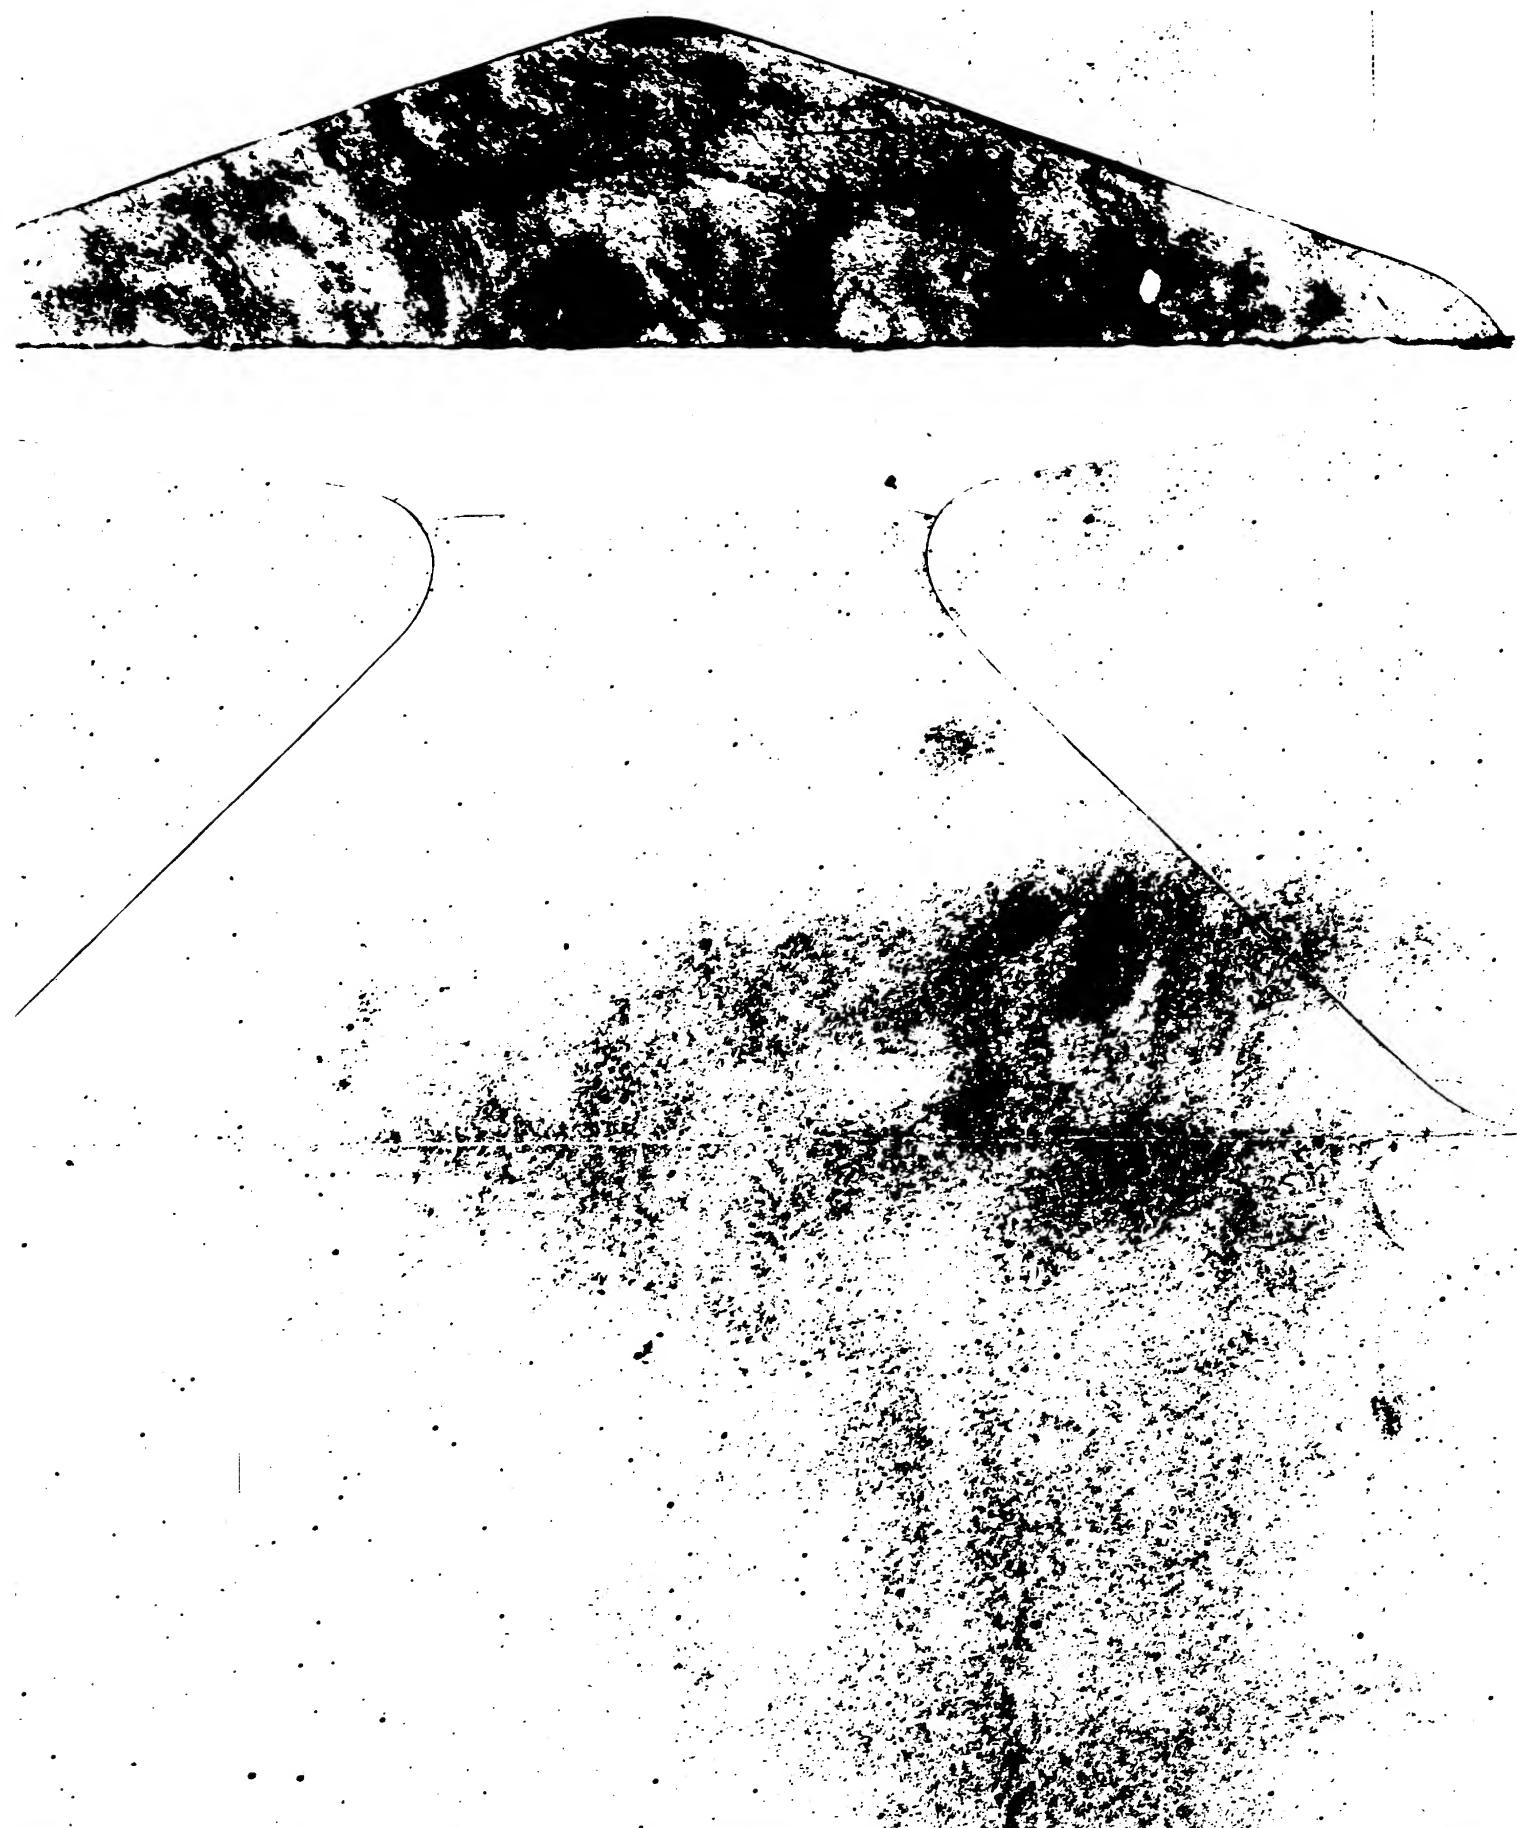

After you get this letter you will be given another chance to pay. For Gods sake pay & see that you pay alone. The people that you are to pay to are not the people that know me but if any of them get back the people that know me will still know me. Please make that the money is paid without anyone knowing about it & without anyone getting hurt. I want to get back to you all so bad so please hurry.

The government & police have stepped out of every case so far when the pay off come why shouldn't they do it for you & I. Please hurry. Pay & pay strong &c - I can't stand this much longer but be sure no police or government know on this so that it all
